GREEN BATHING

Compact boat and RV showers don't offer much room, and traditional bathing products can make a huge mess during travel. Now there's a solution. Delivering explosive lather, the patented, all-in-one Soap Cinch provides proper exfoliation for an unmatched clean. It can even be used to wash a user's back. In addition, the all-natural pouch secures bar soap preventing it from banging around the stall, while a drawstring loop enables it to hang dry, reducing shower clutter and soap dish mess.

Made from hypoallergenic hemp, the innovative Soap Cinch employs no inks or other skin irritants. Unlike loofahs and mesh sponges which promote bacterial growth, it's machine washable. Environmentally-friendly, the handy design ensures the entire bar is used. No more tossing soap slivers.

Easy to use, the convenient Soap Cinch offers single-hand control to reach all parts of the body. Rather than using multiple bathing devices, the back can be effortlessly washed by employing the elastic strap and drawstring loop. Fewer tools equal less mess.

The economical Soap Cinch has a suggested retail price of just $14.95 for three. It's also available at wholesale prices and can be branded with company logos or other artwork to better promote a business or cause. Soap sold separately.
